Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.”

St. Michael Parish is grateful to our parishioners not just on the Holy Day of Christmas, but each and every day of the year! Thank you for being a valued family member of St. Michael Parish. There is nothing that we can’t face together this oncoming year with hope and prayer. Stay humble but strong! We are St. Mikes!!

Merry Christmas
God’s Blessings to you!

Dear parishioners and guests,
As we begin to celebrate the Christmas season, we would like to take a moment to recognize and thank a few people who do a lot for this parish. In order to have a well-functioning, beautiful church and school, it takes a lot of time, energy, and effort. There are so many individuals, both paid and volunteer, that it is impossible to list all of them or everything they do. So much work goes on behind the scenes and the good people who do it are seldom recognized. In no particular order, we would like to thank:

Our parish staff:
Mrs. Wendy Hinerman our Business Manager
Mrs. Kathleen Dieffenbaugher our Stewardship Director
Ms. Cindy Barone our Administrative Assistant
Mrs. Michelle Patterson SMPS Bookkeeper
Mr. Chad Carter our Music Director
Mr. Nick Mayrand our Director of Religious Education
Mrs. Jenny Imer our Youth Director
Mr. Joe Bourgo our Plant Manager
Mrs. Kim Burge our Interim Principal
Mrs. Shandi Nourft our Advancement Coordinator

Our volunteer leadership:
Mr. Denis Wilson, Mrs. Leslie Kosanovic, Mr. Tom Galinski, Mrs. Janet Boyle, Mr. Lou Volpe, Mrs. Danielle Doerr, the women of the Christian Mothers/Christian Women, and the members of the Holy Name Society.

Without these people, everything from running the school, editing the bulletin, launching capital campaigns, sending out birthday cards to our “more advanced” parishioners, to snow removal, care of the physical plant, music, RCIA, Pastoral Council, decorating the church, funeral luncheons, and so many other things that go unnoticed or underappreciated would not happen. To all of you, named and unnamed, who do so much for this church and school, THANK YOU!

We wish you all a Merry Christmas and pray that the peace and love of Christ may fill your hearts and homes in the New Year!

Msgr. Joseph L. Peterson, V.F.
Pastor, St. Michael Parish
Fr. Martin J. Smay

The 2018 Angel Tree project is coming to a close. Once again, the generous people of our church have stepped up to acquire gifts for the 570 tags that decorated the trees in our church. These items help to fulfill the Christmas needs of underprivileged people in our Wheeling community. The Angel Tree gifts support the following charitable organizations: Catholic Charities WV Children’s Home of Wheeling, Harmony House, YSS Freeze Shelter, Wheeling Health Right, Wheeling Soup Kitchen, and the YWCA Abuse Shelter. We cannot thank you enough for your support of this annual project!

Your kindness and love make a difference in our community!

Children’s Liturgy of the Word is held each Sunday during 9am Mass. All 3 year olds through 1st graders are welcome to attend. The presider will call the children up to the front of the church after the opening prayer
Do you have any treasure chests? I have quite a collection of them, and the actual containers range in quality from tattered shoeboxes to beautiful antiques. They are filled with cherished souvenirs: dried flowers, marbles, seashells, ticket stubs, my kitty’s collar, love notes and locks of hair. From time to time I find myself pecking inside and admiring the contents and remembering the story behind each treasure.

One of my very favorite treasure chests is an old blue department store box with a sliding cardboard drawer. It contains a priceless collection, my mother’s Christmas gift-wrap supplies. It is filled with gold foil stars, glitter, red pens which dried up long ago, faded ribbon and her homemade gift tags. Many decades ago she made the tags from salt dough and hand painted each one. She made stars and angels, hearts and holly leaves, and a few bunnies with big pink ears. She personalized the back side of each one. (Although we all could guess which ones were for my sister Holly.) We were all taught to set the tag aside when we opened gifts. The tags would go back into the blue box so that they would be used again for the next Christmas.

The tags were made with love and were tied to a gift, which was given with love. And the tags were gathered and saved because gift giving was always a future plan. That’s the beauty of what my mother’s tags represented. It wasn’t about the gift itself. It was that her love was not limited to a one-time event. Her giving was unending.

Do you keep pretty ribbon and bows? When you receive a cookie tin, do you rinse it out and set it aside for the future? Do you have a family tradition of a unique container that always contains a special gift? When you accept a present in a pretty gift bag, do you carefully flatten it and save it because you’ll re-use it when you give a gift to someone else?

What a lovely thought that we are always planning to give a present! Our stewardship is a gift that we share and I suggest that our stewardship giving remains perpetual. This Christmas and always, when we generously share our gifts of time, talent and treasure, let’s give those gifts with a reusable tag!

On Making a Good Confession

Confession is a place of renewal and a “fresh start.” The Church as a whole and each of us are in constant need of renewal. If you read Wendy Hinerman’s blurb in the last bulletin, you have seen that it is my “Christmas wish” that everyone make a good confession before the end of the Christmas season. A good confession means a confession in which, to the best of your knowledge, you confess all mortal sins you’ve committed and how many times since your last good confession. The priest is always there to help you if you need it. The confessional is a place of mercy not a torture chamber. There is no need to be ashamed of confessing your sins although it is natural to feel some shame or embarrassment. The priest is strictly bound not to ever betray a penitent by connecting something he learns in the confessional to you, directly or indirectly, under any circumstance whatsoever even if this means dying (this has happened!).

There are confessions at this parish by appointment and as listed; at the Cathedral on Friday at 11:15am and Saturday 5:00pm; at Corpus Christi Saturdays at 4:30pm and by appointment; and at St. Vincent on Saturdays 4-4:30pm or by appointment.

I wish fruitful final days of Advent and the joy and peace of Christmas. God bless you and your loved ones!

Fr. Martin Smay

5 Steps for a Good Confession

1. Examine your conscience. Guides for examining your conscience at the USCCB website or another one here for adults.
2. Be sincerely sorry for your sins. This means having the intention of not committing them again, even if you think that from a practical standpoint you will commit them again.
3. Confess your sins to the priest.
4. Make certain that you confess all your mortal sins and the number of them.
   - Mortal sin is sin whose object (what one wants to do) is grave matter and which is also committed with full knowledge and deliberate consent. Full knowledge presupposes knowledge of the sinful character of the act and that it’s serious. It also implies a consent sufficiently deliberate to be a personal choice (for example: hurting onerself is a sin and can be grave, but if one were to accidentally break an arm this would not be a sin because one did not chose it – it was not a personal choice).
   - Generally, only sins and not the circumstances need to be confessed; the only time the circumstance needs to be added is if it alters the nature of the sin (for example: lying is a sin, but lying to one’s spouse or parents changes the nature of the sin because of the special nature of those relationships).
5. After your confession, do the penance the priest gives to you.
Our Annual Stewardship Appreciation dinner was a grand success. Over 300 parishioners gathered at the Angelus Center for an evening of fellowship, food, and fun. Candy canes were blessed and the St. Michael Parish School children delighted the crowd with Christmas carols. The highlight of the evening was the arrival of St. Nick! He thanked all of the parishioners for the generous sharing of time, talent and treasure. St. Nick thanked Monsignor Peterson for hosting the event and congratulated Father Martin on his ordination and reminded all of us that this will be Father Martin’s “first” Christmas.

St. Nick added a few special shout outs, too! Special recognition was given to some outstanding stewards: Denny Wilson, Sandy Pell, and Benjamin Halicki. Kudos went to Cindy Barone for being a delightful ambassador at the Parish Office and St. Nick sang the praises of Ryan Wolf for his marvelous music program at St. Michael Parish School.

St. Nicholas was known for his generosity and helping the poor. He recognized St. Michael Parish for our commitment to the needy. In addition to our many parishioners who help at the center, this year, our church made a financial commitment to Catholic Charities Neighborhood Center. Six thousand dollars was given to the Neighborhood Center. On behalf of our parish, St. Nicholas brought an additional check for $500 for the Catholic Charities Neighborhood Center.

Thank you to everyone who joined us for the special evening. We extend our gratitude to our behind-the-scenes elves who helped with the dinner: the 2019 Confirmation Class, the staff at St. Michael Parish and St. Michael Parish School, Charlie Schlegel and Ye Olde Alpha and our Christmas cookie bakers. We say a special thank you to Launa Post for the delightful table centerpieces, each containing a Christmas gift.

A round of applause and a gold star goes to Nick Mayrand for going above and beyond as our DRE.

Thunderous applause is extended to Jen Imer who sparkles like tinsel and brightens every event.

A standing ovation to Kathleen Dieffenbaugher and Wendy Hinerman who coordinated a fabulous event.

Let’s hope for an encore in 2019!
At St. Michael Parish School we strive to LEARN, SERVE, LEAD & SUCCEED daily. Here is a snapshot of just how we have done that since August!

LEARN

SMPS provides learning opportunities for our students in and outside of the classroom. This year students have gone on field trips, encountered Camp Magis and REAP, hands-on experimentation (even with the FBI), dressed-up as saints and welcomed the knowledge of guest speakers to name a few.
SERVE
SMPS is proud to provide opportunities for our students to use their God-given talents to live out their faith through stewardship by serving God and others.

Catholic Charities of West Virginia Neighborhood Center Food Pantry received 950 lbs. of canned food from St. Michael Parish School’s Student Council canned food drive.

LEAD & SUCCEED
SMPS students are proud to lead and succeed academically, spiritually, theatrically, musically and athletically!

Thank you for your ministry!

Warm Some Hearts and Other Parts
You have the power to warm some hearts and more this winter. Many people in Wheeling don’t have decent coats and other winter clothing. St. Michael Parish will conduct a drive from Jan. 6th – 19th to provide good used clothing for our neighbors in need.
We will place containers in the church entrance to hold your donations, which we will deliver to Youth Services System to help the poor. They need:
- coats
- hats, gloves & scarves
- boots
- socks
- warm clothing
- blankets

YSS needs these items for children and adults, all sizes. So if you get a new coat or jacket for Christmas, please consider donating your gently used garment to our collection. The folks YSS helps also need NEW underwear, so if you’re shopping, please consider picking up a package or two.

God bless you for your generosity. As Jesus said (in Matthew 25:40), “Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.”

Parish School of Religion (PSR)
As our Parish School of Religion moves into its short holiday break, we want to recognize our volunteer catechists for their dedication to our church’s future! These folks devote their Sunday mornings every week to the students in the parish who do not attend Catholic school throughout the week, ensuring that our young people have the opportunity to learn and grow together in their faith journeys. This year’s excellent catechists include Dee and Jimmy Dean, Meagan Kirchner, Diane Coleman, Adriana and Elizabeth Wolf, Isaac Smith, Colleen Ryan Mayrand, Maddie Davin, and Welna Laugeyaro. When you see them around, thank them for their service!

January is a great time to enroll your youngster in PSR if you haven’t done so yet. PSR accepts students from age 4 all the way through 8th grade. Contact Nick Mayrand for more information at nmayrand@dwc.org!

MEMORIES AND DREAMS
Throughout our lives, we retain the language and habits of our native region and family of origin. Should we return to our home after a long absence, we quickly revert to its familiar speech and practices. Our deep memory is reflected in old stories and words and speech patterns. This familiarity runs like an underground river and accompanies us wherever we go.

Not only do we remember, we are incorporated into and made part of a greater memory. In remembering and recollecting, we are in turn gathered up and re-collected.

Today we remember Mary, a small figure travelling the country roads to visit Elizabeth. All the great pronouncements and dreams of the prophets point to this time when the Lord’s words to Mary would be gathered and fulfilled. The memories of her people are alive in her, and memories of her nourish our own living faith.

Rosary Nights
All are welcome to attend an evening devoted to our Blessed Virgin Mary in praying the rosary.

Christmas Medical Miracle: Woman Considered Brain Dead Recovers After Her Life Support is Removed

On Friday, Dec. 7, the NBC Nightly News took the time to devote an entire story to the case of a Michigan woman who survived a near-death experience which illustrates that doctors can sometimes make the wrong diagnosis and give up on comatose patients too soon. Kristen Dahlgren recounted for viewers that Michele De Leeuw was hospitalized after having a heart attack and, at one point, was diagnosed as nearly brain dead with only five percent brain function. Her husband, Karl, was seen explaining how difficult it was for him to decide to have her life support removed by doctors who advised that she would never recover, but then she woke up and began talking a few days after life support was disconnected, and has improved substantially since then.
