This Lent, the Department of Formation & Mission is partnering with Wheeling Jesuit University’s Department of Theology to offer a free, public Lenten lecture series, "Saints & Heroes."

During the season when we renew our commitment to spiritual and moral growth, we will look to the lives of saints and heroes as a source of insight and inspiration. These three lectures will take place on March 12, March 26, and April 9 from 7-8:30pm in the CET Recital Hall at WJU. All are welcome to attend in person, and we’re looking to offer a live video stream as well.

For more details on the lectures, visit www.dwc.org/lenten-lecture-series.

All are welcome to attend the monthly First Friday Mass celebrated at the Bishops’ Chapel located in Mt. Calvary Cemetery, Wheeling. Please invite family and friends to join us for the holy sacrifice of the Mass and to remember our beloved dead who are buried within the cemetery.

On Judging
Today’s Gospel contains one of Jesus’ more famous quotes: “Stop judging and you will not be judged.” It is necessary to understand these words properly, otherwise we risk falling into absurdity.

The Church has never understood our Lord’s words to be a prohibition on all judgement. In order to live, we must be constantly judging. For example: is it safe for me to cross National Road (probably not!) or whether a particular food is good for health or not or whether a door is open or closed. At times it is also necessary to make judgments that have a certain moral value: is it a sin to kill, or to tell the truth, or to steal. To stop all judgement would be flawed.

There are two things required to judge: 1) knowledge and 2) the proper authority. The judgement itself must have the quality of proportion: that is, it takes into account the situation, who the person is, in short, what is due to the individual. Thus judges in our courts do not necessarily sin by passing judgement on the guilt or innocence of persons with regards to exterior actions because they are appointed by legitimate authority.

There is no prohibition on judging a particular action as good or evil. Thus we can say that Hitler did something evil by murdering so many and that Mother Theresa did good by helping so many, without thereby judging the person themselves.

In the final analysis, however, judgement of any person is left to God because He alone has knowledge of the interior state of a person. Ordinarily when people commit the sin of judgement, it is a form of usurpation: they are trying to fulfill God’s role. We should even be reticent to judge ourselves, as St. Paul was (1 Corinthians 4:3-4).

Conference 2019:
Creating Connections for Healing

Interested in learning more about how people of faith can respond to the opioid epidemic? This year’s annual Parish Social Ministries conference, a collaborative effort between Catholic Charities, the Diocese, and the West Virginia Council of Churches, will address this topic on March 9th at the St. Joseph Retreat Center in Wheeling. This day of presentations, workshops, and discussions runs from 9:00am-4:00pm and includes lunch. There is no cost to attend, but please register so that the organizers can plan accordingly. For registration and additional details, visit: https://catholiccharitieswv.org/blog/7th-annual-social-ministries-conference/

There’s a running joke that the “elves” make things happen in homes. I’m not talking about the Elf on a Shelf. I’m talking about the elves who magically clean a home after the kids are in bed. Or transform a heap of dirty laundry into meticulously washed and folded clothes.

Garden gnomes aren’t just cute statues. It is my understanding that they are mystical creatures who bring good luck, guard treasure and help with farm chores.

My grandmother would frequently refer to her “Brownie” who was a little spirit who would come out at night while everyone was sleeping and perform housekeeping chores. From time to time she would put out a bowl of milk to thank the Brownie for helping.

Do you pause to wonder who decorates our church for Christmas? Who lovingly places the poinsettias on the altar? Who made the palm arrangements? How did all of the Easter lilies appear before the Great Easter Vigil? Who washes and presses all of the altar linens?

We do not have elves or gnomes or brownies. Our Environment Committee receives the credit for all of the above mentioned tasks. The Environment Committee is a sub-committee of the Liturgy Committee. These devoted stewards are the hardworking team who work behind the scenes to make our church clean, inviting and beautiful. They carefully follow the liturgical seasons (and the budget!) to make our church liturgies more meaningful. I am so grateful for this committee and their dedication to our church!

Are you interested in helping with our Environment Committee? We WELCOME help from stewards of all ages! Please contact me or Kathleen Dieffenbaugher for additional details!

Thank you!
