Lenten Lecture Series

This Lent, the Department of Formation & Mission is partnering with Wheeling Jesuit University’s Department of Theology to offer a free, public Lenten lecture series, “Saints & Heroes.”

During the season when we renew our commitment to spiritual and moral growth, we will look to the lives of saints and heroes as a source of insight and inspiration. These three lectures will take place on March 12, March 26, and April 9 from 7-8:30pm in the CET Recital Hall at WJU. All are welcome to attend in person, and we’re looking to offer a live video stream as well.

For more details on the lectures, visit www.dwc.org/lenten-lecture-series.

My husband and I rinse all of our empty aluminum cans. If the can has a pull tab, we set the tab in a special dish to add to the Parish Ronald McDonald House tab collection (still going strong for over a decade). Our daily newspaper is stored in an old shaker box.

We’re recycling. There’s just one hitch. Neither of us can seem to remember when to place our recyclables on the curb. It wouldn’t be too tough to mark it on the calendar, but we’ve found a method that’s 100% reliable.

We live across the street from Melvin Kahle. One quick glance out the front door and we know if it’s time to put the red bin out for pickup. Mr. Kahle probably has no idea that he’s our recycling harbinger. He is a fine model of many outstanding characteristics.

We’re all modeling behavior. I think I’ll ponder what behavior I’m teaching!

—Wendy Hinerman

Speaking of recycling…
St. Michael Parish Stewardship Council has sponsored an annual community-wide Shred and E-cycle event which has been very successful! In addition, St. Michael Parish School has an on-going school-wide recycling and education program for the school. The program includes collection bins throughout the school for everything from paper to kitchen waste!
TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The song of the angels, “Holy, Holy, Holy,” resounds from our lips at every Mass. There was a widespread belief in the first religions of the world that God stirred creation into being by a word, a song, a musical note. Music and a sense of God’s presence have always been inseparable. In the liturgy, your voice is invited into this song as the priest names the reasons for our praise. “Heaven and earth are full of your glory,” and we are not passive onlookers, but participants in this glory. Catholic prayer no longer assigns this angelic hymn to a choir, but gives it to you to sing. Even if your voice is thought to be suitable only for a well-insulated shower stall, you are called into this song.

We are born to sing—just listen to a baby testing the full range of newly-discovered vocal abilities. Soon we get shushed and hushed into quiet, and given lots of messages that our voices are unwanted, and that we need to raise our hands in order to be heard. All of that is overturned in liturgy, the place where God waits to hear us come alive in the song of all creation. In heaven, everyone’s in the choir; why not start practicing now?

It also gives us a unique opportunity to celebrate the Sacrament as a broader parish community, recalling our baptismal promises and opening ourselves again to the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives as we walk with our young confirmandi (those preparing for Confirmation). Please pray for our confirmandi as they continue to deepen their knowledge of the Holy Spirit and grow together as disciples of Christ.

AN ONGOING MISSION

In his hometown synagogue, Jesus’ neighbors are amazed by his words. Nevertheless, they remind each other, “Is this not Joseph’s son?” Surely the people know who he is. The carpenter’s son. The young man who had learned in this very synagogue. The boy down the street.

Conflict arises as Jesus begins to define himself in a new way. When he compares himself to the ancient prophets Elijah and Elisha the tensions grow. The tensions multiply when Jesus begins to tell of a new mission for God’s people: the good news of the scriptures is intended for all.

In his famous passage from the First Letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul reminds us of the eternal nature of love. Love does not come to an end. In today’s readings, we are reminded that, like love, Jesus’ mission cannot be contained. Jesus slips through the crowd of persecutors and moves on to new challenges.

We are called to this same perseverance in the name of love.

An extreme new bill passed by the New York legislature Tuesday, Jan. 22 allows abortions until BIRTH in many cases, and allows non-doctors to perform abortions. Outrageously, New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo (D) ordered that the One World Trade Center’s spire be lit pink to celebrate his signing of this extreme abortion bill. Gov. Cuomo is Catholic. What does our Catechism teach about the responsibilities Catholic public figures, and in particular influential politicians have? What are the consequences that are recommended?

“…Those Catholics who publicly announce their denial that abortion is always gravely immoral, or who publicly promote abortion, or who publicly argue in favor of legalized abortion, also commit a mortal sin and also incur a sentence of automatic excommunication...for two reasons. First, they have fallen into the sin of heresy by believing that abortion is not always gravely immoral (canons 751 and 1364). Second, these Catholics are providing substantial assistance for women to obtain abortions by influencing public policy to make abortions legal, and to keep abortions legal, and to broaden access to abortion. Those who provide such substantial assistance commit a mortal sin and incur a sentence of automatic excommunication (canon 1398).” (http://www.catechism.cc/articles/abortion-excommunication.htm)
