The apostles reported all they had done and taught. Jesus said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while.”

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The American Revolution cleared the way for freedom of religion in the former colonies, since the colonies had always been a more religiously tolerant place than the old country. Even so, colonial laws restricted the practice of the Catholic faith, and just as in England, Americans who desired to be priests or nuns had to go to the Netherlands or France. As political storm clouds gathered in France, an American woman, Mother Bernardina Matthews, the prioress of the Hoogstraeten Carmel in Holland, made a brave move. With two other American nuns, her nieces, and a Dutch sister, she came to Port Tobacco, Maryland, in 1790. Within twenty years the community had grown to twenty, although by 1823 their farm failed and they had to move to Baltimore and open a school. The Carmelite order requires contemplation and cloister, so in time the school was closed. The Port Tobacco land had long since been sold, but in 1976 a community of nuns was able to return thanks to loyal neighbors who had worked for forty years for their restoration. Today, our original American convent is fully alive in prayer, hard work, and strong community. — Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch

A Letter from the SMPS Principal

As the 2018 Festival wraps up I want to personally thank all of our SMPS Festival Committee/Volunteers/Families and Parish Community Members for one of the most successful festivals we have ever had. Countless hours were spent by our Festival Committee, made up of Jeremy and Missy Tiu, Jeremy and Amanda Lowe, Jacob and Adrienne Manning and Audrey Dieffenbaugher. This team did an amazing job and I thank all of them for everything they have done for our school. None of it would have been possible without school and parish families that gave up a large part of their time to ensure that the festival and its guests had a great weekend. The volunteers and their commitment to our school and parish are examples of some of the best things about our SMPS family! You won’t find it anywhere else!

On behalf of our SMPS family, I thank all who made this festival a success.

To sum it up, I’d like to use a quote from Albert Schweitzer: “The interior joy we feel when we have done a good deed is the nourishment the soul requires.”

Baby Oliver saved in U.S. after UK doctors said his heart couldn’t be fixed

“…When Oliver was born in the United Kingdom, he had a large, non-cancerous tumor in his heart, called a cardiac fibroma. It was so rare that doctors in the UK weren’t able to treat it. Only a handful had even seen it…[Oliver’s parents’] research led them to Boston Children’s Hospital, where another little girl, Francesca, had successfully had her large cardiac tumor removed…” Unlike Charlie Gard, and Alfie Evans, the UK allowed Oliver’s parents to explore other options. They started their own fundraising campaign, and after they had successfully raised most of the money, they got good news: “…not only would the NHS pay for the surgery, they would also send two cardiologists and a cardiac surgeon to learn from the doctors at Boston Children’s… After the surgery, Oliver continued to stun doctors by making a rapid recovery, and was able to return home by Christmas…”

The opportunity of seeking treatment outside of the UK was most notably denied to toddlers Charlie Gard and Alfie Evans. “…MP Steve Woolfe introduced a bill he called ‘Alfie’s Law,’ which would restore parental rights to prevent injustices like those suffered by Charlie Gard and Alfie Evans from happening again…[and put an end] to a dangerous trend of public bodies depriving parents and families of the right to make decisions they believe are in the best interests of their children.” [https://www.liveaction.org/news/oliver-saved-us-doctors-heart/]
