TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION
Last Wednesday, the greatest pilgrimage in our tradition ended with the feast of Saint James at his shrine in Compostela, Spain. Every year, as many as a hundred thousand persons walk a portion of the medieval way of the pilgrim, earning the right to wear the scallop shell symbol of this journey of faith. In legend, this city on the northern coast of Spain is the final resting place of the apostle, and the full name of the cathedral is “Saint James of the Field of Stars.” There is a tradition that Saint James the Great preached there. In the Roman Catholic tradition, the pilgrimage, like any procession, is a symbol, life’s journey distilled, a powerful sign of our journey toward a certain goal. The perils of the road, the support of companions, the contemplative slower pace of life, have the potential to transform and renew the pilgrims in ways that last a lifetime. Along the way, the distinctions between rich and poor fall away, and everyone shares humble rustic food and stops for the night in hostels or under the stars. After a long walk, the experience of entering through the great doors into the vast cathedral filled with incense, light, and song is a foretaste of heaven. The pilgrims often say that their whole lives are redirected toward that moment of entry into the heavenly Jerusalem. The most memorable feature of the cathedral is called the botofumeiro, an incense burner on pulleys and chains that sweeps through the cathedral in immense circles, swirling clouds of sweet-smelling incense around the vast nave.

WORK: It seems to be a part of life. From household chores for the little ones to adults working to pay the bills, we work. There are numerous songs about the drudgery of work, working for the man, or owing your soul to the company store. Dolly Parton had a little ditty about working “Nine to Five” but I think my favorite may be Dire Straits, “Money for Nothing”.

There are also songs about LOVING work. Think of the Seven Dwarfs headed off to work singing “Heigh Ho”. The elves in Santa’s toy shop always seem to be singing happy tunes. I think our parishioners may be singing happy and upbeat work songs. I’ve come to this conclusion after watching the hundreds and hundreds of people who worked so hard to guarantee a successful festival. Months of planning went into the three-day event and I extend our sincere thanks to the outstanding festival committee. All of their planning was contingent on one thing; workers. No disappointments … we had workers!

Only one week after the festival, one might think that all of our stewards were sitting on their Lazy Boy Recliners enjoying a glass of iced tea. However, last Saturday, over 20 people put on their work gloves and grabbed wheelbarrows and shovels to attack the surface of the school playground. The amount of mulch removed filled a colossal sized dumpster (courtesy of Mansuetto Roofing).

Your stewardship is an amazing labor of love! THANK YOU to our hard working and devoted parishioners. Thank you for the lovely melody of praise, thanksgiving, joy and love!  ~~Wendy Hinerman
