I'm Sorry.

Missing Hand Signal

Right, Left, Stop, Halt, OK, Fist Wave, The Bird, Come Here, Be Quiet, Be Louder, Watching You, and on and on... We have hand signals for many uses.

We don't have one for “I’m Sorry.”

If someone cuts us off in traffic, we assume they’re a jerk. If they invade our space, or take the last one, or do something that you feel wrongs you, where words are not an option, we often think the worst of them.

What if they could say “I’m Sorry” through a simple hand gesture? Sorry because they’re late. Sorry because they have a hungry child. Sorry because it really was an accident. What if you could say “I’m sorry?” Because you really didn’t mean it.

In lieu of a hand signal, let’s use empathy to assume they’re sorry. Because you’re not a jerk, and they’re a lot like you.

—Rob Wickham

2019 School Picnic

We had the great weather we hoped for, and the kids had tons of fun at this year’s annual SMPS school picnic at Wheeling Park. It was so nice for our community to be able to gather together for a relaxing and fun day before we go our separate ways for the summer months. A HUGE thank you to the Parent Association who organized the picnic and to the teachers and parents who volunteered to help cook hot dogs, serve food, paint faces and send in baked goods!
The 2019 Catholic Sharing Appeal (CSA) theme, Sowing Seeds of HOPE, provides a sense of purpose and direction for our diocese as we meet the challenges of today and work toward the future to make our Church ever more vibrant and relevant. The CSA is an essential way to reach beyond ourselves and our parish and give HOPE to others through ministries, programs and services which enrich a Christ-centered way of life.

We most often experience Church in our local parish. The portion of the CSA that is returned to parishes will enable them to address their most pressing needs. Last year, more than $2.3 million supported parishes and missions through CSA funding.

"St. Michael Church has reached the age where rehabilitation is needed on the facility. HVAC, lighting and landscaping have been the three major areas of concern as we move forward. The CSA has helped tremendously in meeting the needs of renovating a 60-year-old structure."

— Rev. John Gallagher St. Michael Parish, Vienna

The people served and the ministries sustained by the Catholic Sharing Appeal provide HOPE for every one of our parish communities and unite us as a Diocesan Church.

Netflix Backs Lawsuit Overturning Georgia Abortion Ban, Will Leave State if Babies are Protected

The online media giant Netflix may move out of Georgia if the state succeeds in protecting unborn babies from abortions.

On Tuesday, Netflix chief content officer Ted Sarandos said the company supports a legal challenge against Georgia’s new heartbeat law, WTHR News 13 reports. If the courts allow Georgia to enforce the law; however, Netflix may stop its protections there, Sarandos said.

“We have many women working on productions in Georgia, whose rights, along with millions of others, will be severely restricted by this law,” Sarandos in a statement to CNBC.

He said the company is working with the ACLU and other abortion advocacy groups to fight the law.

“Given the legislation has not yet been implemented, we’ll continue to film there — while also supporting partners and artists who choose not to. Should it ever come into effect, we’d rethink our entire investment in Georgia,” he said.

Netflix would be the first major filming group to boycott the pro-life state, Fox Business reports. Actress Alyssa Milano has been pushing for a boycott for months, but, until now, only a few small film and TV projects have stopped working there.

The streaming service is the first major studio to take a stand on the controversial abortion bill that prompted several Hollywood stars to threaten to boycott the state. Netflix has filmed several projects in Georgia, including “The Haunting of Hill House,” “Stranger Things,” the first two seasons of “Queer Eye” and “Ozark.”

At least two projects have already reconsidered filming in Georgia since Gov. Brian Kemp signed House Bill 481 into law earlier this month, according to the Hollywood Reporter. “Handmaid’s Tale” director Reed Morano immediately stopped scouting locations in the Peach State for her Amazon series “The Power” following the May 7 signing of the bill.

The upcoming comedy, “Barb and Star Go to Vista Del Mar,” by Kirsten Wiig and Annie Mumolo, also pulled out of filming in Georgia.
