- For the repose of souls

The Christian holy day of Pentecost, which is celebrated on the seventh Sunday after Easter, commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and other followers of Jesus Christ while they were in Jerusalem celebrating the Feast of Weeks, as described in the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 2:1–31). In Christian tradition, this event represents the birth of the early Church.

The main sign of Pentecost in the west is the color red. It symbolizes joy and the fire of the Holy Spirit. Priests or ministers and choirs wear red vestments, and in modern times, the custom has extended to the lay people of the congregation wearing red clothing in celebration as well.

When I look back to my childhood, I can’t recall how it began. I don’t know how the friendship started. Where did they meet? When did they meet? It was just always a part of my life…the friendship between the Vigliettas and the Mansuettos. Joe and Eileen, Frank and Susie. It was always a constant in my life.

I know that mom and Eileen both had kids at St. Mike’s. I’m sure it was an easy relationship of common interests: class parties, PTA, fundraisers. As for the dads, that was a different story. They both shared the experience of having been in the seminary, studying for the priesthood. While they did not know each other at the time, it certainly gave them a basis for their friendship; a history of studying Catholicism, learning Latin and creating camaraderie amongst young men like themselves. Not many men would understand that experience, which created a bond between Joe and Frank. This bond solidified the friendship between the two families.

Back then, at a time when you didn’t dare call an adult by their first name, they were “Mr. and Mrs. Viglietta” to me. My memories include so many years of shared dinners and get-togethers, always with a simple dish of pasta, a bottle of wine or two, and always with laughter. So. Much. Laughter. If it wasn’t getting together for Sunday dinner or a summer cookout, then it was rallying the kids to answer the last minute needs of Sr. Daniel and Laurentia from the 18th Street Center.

It wasn’t until I reached Central Catholic High School as a student that I started to have an understanding of who “Doc” was. Walking in as a scared freshman, I felt some comfort in knowing my principal as well as I did. At the same time, I kept our family friendship on the down-low, as I was pretty sure it wasn’t cool to be the principal’s pet. And I certainly wasn’t willing to risk it.

What I did see; however, was a different side of my “Mr. Viglietta.” I saw this man that was ALWAYS present to his students, ALWAYS smiling, ALWAYS encouraging, and ALWAYS, ALWAYS praying. He was the mentor, the role model and the spirit of Central Catholic High School. He walked the halls daily, engaging every student and supporting every employee. It didn’t take long for me to be proud that I was a special “family friend.”

There was never a time in my life that I couldn’t count on this friendship. My own children have memories of Doc playing “what number am I thinking of?” and laughing hysterically when he would sing to them. To this day, they probably don’t know that when Santa Claus called them on the phone every year, it was their buddy Doc.

When my mom was diagnosed with terminal cancer in 2003, it was Joe and Eileen that helped to comfort us most. We felt their prayers and knew that they shared our pain. When my father died unexpectedly in 2012, it was Joe that lost a best friend. And with my parents no longer on this earth, it was Joe and Eileen that helped to fill my void. Their love, their prayers, their support were always present.

With his passing, Doc has left a legacy of goodness, intelligence, humor and most of all, a love of family and God. I feel so blessed that he was such an important part of my life. I feel blessed that I knew the many sides that made up the man. And just as he was a constant in my life here on earth, I take comfort in knowing that he will continue to be a constant to me in the next. I can’t help but imagine that he is sitting at the table with my mom and dad, eating carbonara, drinking wine, and laughing…always laughing.

The 2019 Catholic Sharing Appeal (CSA) theme, Sowing Seeds of HOPE, provides a sense of purpose and direction for our diocese as we meet the challenges of today and work toward the future to make our Church ever more vibrant and relevant. The CSA is an essential way to reach beyond ourselves and our parish and give HOPE to others through ministries, programs and services which enrich a Christ-centered way of life.

We most often experience Church in our local parish. The portion of the CSA that is returned to parishes will enable them to address their most pressing needs. Last year, more than $2.3 million supported parishes and missions through CSA funding.

"St. Michael Church has reached the age where rehabilitation is needed on the facility. HVAC, lighting and landscaping have been the three major areas of concern as we move forward. The CSA has helped tremendously in meeting the needs of renovating a 60-year-old structure."

— Rev. John Gallagher St. Michael Parish, Vienna

The people served and the ministries sustained by the Catholic Sharing Appeal provide HOPE for every one of our parish communities and unite us as a Diocesan Church.
