Pastoral Council is having a Donut Social after 9:00 Mass on Sunday, March 1.
Diocesan Pastoral Council

Bishop Mark E. Brennan has announced the renewal of a Diocesan Pastoral Council. The council will be comprised of lay representatives elected by the laity. The council will be a consultative and collaborative body that will connect the bishop to the laity, giving them the opportunity to discuss the needs of the diocese together.

Part of the mission of the council, as stated in Article III of the charter, is to act as an authentic and reflective voice of the people of God; provide an honest and open forum of dialogue and communication regarding pastoral affairs among the bishop, laity, religious and clergy; to collaborate with the Presbyteral Council, Parish and Vicariate Pastoral councils, vicariate leadership, and diocesan offices; and to be a visible sign of the unity of the people of God in the church in Wheeling-Charleston.

Article IV of the charter notes Canon 512 §2: “The Christian faithful who are appointed to the pastoral council are to be selected so that the entire portion of the people of God which constitutes the diocese is truly reflected, with due regard for the diverse regions, social conditions and professions of the diocese as well as the role which they have in the apostolate, either as individuals or in conjunction with others.”

It is also stated here that “Vicariate members of the Diocesan Pastoral Council shall not be current diocesan employees.”

The election process will begin at the parish level. St. Michael Parish will elect two parishioners to serve on a Vicariate Council. The elected members of each Vicariate Council will then elect three from among themselves to be representatives on the Diocesan Pastoral Council. This gives the council 18 elected lay representatives from across the diocese.

Father Carlos will be accepting nominations for candidates representing St. Michael Parish. The qualities for candidates are as follows:

“Only those members of Christ’s faithful who are outstanding in firm faith, high moral standards, and prudence are to be assigned to the pastoral council.”

Can. 512 §3

♦ Registered and participating in the sacramental life of the parish
♦ A working knowledge of parish and Diocesan life
♦ A Vatican II vision of the Church
♦ An awareness of the demographics and life of their Vicariate
♦ An openness toward study and reflection
♦ An eagerness to carry out the Diocesan mission
♦ An availability of time and energy
♦ Ability to attend two meetings
♦ Willingness to serve at least three years in an advisory and consultative role with the Bishop
♦ Familiarity with This Land Is Home to Me, At Home in the Web of Life, A Church that Heals, Documents of the Ninth Diocesan Synod, and the major pastoral letters of the Bishops of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston

If you would like to nominate a parishioner, please contact Father Carlos, cmelocoton@dwc.org, or 304.242.1560 ext 2. Deadline for nominations is Monday, March 9th, 2020.

St. Michael Parish will hold the ballot election at each Mass on March 28 and 29.

The first meeting of the Diocesan Pastoral Council is set for Friday, June 19, to Saturday, June 20, at St. John XXIII Pastoral Center in Charleston.
