Lenten Lecture Series
This Lent, the Department of Formation & Mission is partnering with Wheeling Jesuit University’s Department of Theology to offer a free, public Lenten lecture series, “Saints & Heroes.”

During the season when we renew our commitment to spiritual and moral growth, we will look to the lives of saints and heroes as a source of insight and inspiration. These 3 lectures will take place on March 26, and April 9 from 7-8:30pm in the CET Recital Hall at WJU. All are welcome to attend in person, and we’re looking to offer a live video stream as well. For more details on the lectures, visit www.dwc.org/lenten-lecture-series.

MID-LENT CHECK-IN

God says to Moses, “This is what you shall tell the Israelites: I AM sent me to you . . . The LORD, the God of your [ancestors], the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob” (Exodus 3:14, 15). As Jesus would later say, God is not a God of the dead, but of the living, and so we believe that the dead will one day rise. At this midpoint of Lent, we pause to consider how our repentance is leading us to the Resurrection, to our reunion with the great “I AM.” Part of our repentance involves working to secure justice for all and helping our neighbor to live in God’s ways. We encourage each other and nurture each other, like the compassionate gardener of today’s Gospel, who tells the owner of the orchard that he will nurture the tree, fertilize it, and perhaps it will bear fruit.
I recently learned a new skill from Michelle Patterson, the St. Michael Parish School bookkeeper and my friend. She shared her method of taking an unusual hostess gift. I’ll bet you can guess which pizza I’m talking about if I tell you it’s legendary for many Wheelingites.

Michelle has been known to take boxes of this local specialty to California for her son Cody and his wife, Kristin. I asked Michelle for a few tips and she gladly shared her technique. She went above and beyond just sharing her strategy; she loaned her favorite tote bag that’s a perfect fit for those white boxes of pizza and also fits in the overhead compartment on a plane. Scott and I recently hand delivered two boxes of the Wheeling Feeling pizza to our very surprised family in Florida! They say that it is better to give than to receive and that was so true for us. It was fun for us to plan the gift and great to see that it was appreciated.

When I stop and think about the many gifts that our parish and school receive, it’s incredible! We are so very appreciative to the many people who give us gifts! We are the grateful recipients of your time, talent and treasure. I am well aware that sometimes it’s challenging to fit stewardship into your schedule when you feel swamped, or the logistics feel overwhelming, but so many of you find the way to help our church. Thank you for sharing your time! And, thank you to the many generous people who give their hard earned money to help us with our church needs.

There’s an expression; give what’s right, not what’s left. We truly appreciate everyone who sees that giving to our church is right.

TEN MATCHBOXES

Our 5th-8th grade students had the opportunity to experience the play “Ten Matchboxes” by Janusz Korczak. It was an eye opening experience for our students.

During the play, the actor, Amichai Pardo, plays the role of Yanusz Korczak, the famous Jewish children's writer and educator who lived in Warsaw. The students also, for a brief moment, became actors performing as the children from the orphanage. They received boxes and created endings to the stories. At the end of the play the children created a children’s court similar to the one at the orphanage in Warsaw.

The following is a thank you note that we received after our collection of warm winter clothing for the Winter Freeze Shelter of YSS:

Dear church members,

Thank you for your generous gifts of clothes, blankets, scarves, gloves and hats.

Since December 15, 2018, we have had over 160 different people seek shelter at our Winter Freeze Shelter. When thinking of the shelter, most think of warm beds, food and clothing – although these are important – most overlook the conversation and company our guests get when staying at the shelter. I read a quote the other day that went, “I learned that a long walk and calm conversation are an incredible combination if you want to build a bridge.” ~Seth Godin. Building these bridges of trust, hope and kindness are key in helping people who are most in need. Without a conversation and generosity like yours, we cannot get to the root of the problem with helping those in need. In talking to one of the guests this week, I learned he is from New Jersey, walked and hitchhiked to Wheeling form New Jersey to be able to visit his children.

Thank you for helping make the difference!

Youth Services System, Inc.

Today we know of 91 babies saved from abortion by YOUR prayers since March 6...

The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed. —Luke 4:18-19

Lord, send us to the poorest, the most broken, the most captive, the most blind and the most oppressed in the world, the innocent pre-born children in their mother’s wombs that are scheduled for destruction. Help us to bring them healing, liberty, sight and justice through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen
