Living with Christ this week

Sunday’s readings remind us how temptations lure us to deny our baptismal dignity as God’s children. This week’s readings offer resources to help us. The Old Testament encourages attention to God’s words and commandments, fidelity to prayer, and deepening our covenant relationship with God and others. The gospels encourage good deeds, forgiveness, attentive listening, trust, non-violence, and love of our enemies.

NEXT WEEK’S READINGS

MARCH 12, 2017

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

READING 1
GN 12: 1-4A

The LORD said to Abram:
"Go forth from the land of your kinsfolk and from your father’s house to a land that I will show you.

"I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you; I will make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you and curse those who curse you. All the communities of the earth shall find blessing in you."

Abram went as the LORD directed him.

READING 2
2TM 1:8 B-10

Beloved:
Bears your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God.

He saved us and called us to a holy life, not according to our works but according to his own design and the grace bestowed on us in Christ Jesus before time began, but now made manifest through the appearance of our savior Christ Jesus, who destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

GOSPEL
MT 17: 1-9

Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light.
And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him.

Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."
While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him."

When the disciples heard this, they fell prostrate and were very much afraid.

But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and do not be afraid."
And when the disciples raised their eyes, they saw no one else but Jesus alone.

As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, "Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

Responding to the Word

Jesus uses Scripture to give him confidence in temptation.

- What can I do this Lent to make Scripture more important in my daily life?

  Jesus, today I will...

Lent 2017

GIVE UP, TAKE UP, LIFT UP!
