Happy Mother’s Day!

If you take a peek at the flowery greeting card display for this special day, there are some new categories. There are cards for almost every imaginable woman who has a hand in raising a child: sisters, aunts and grandmothers, the lovely lady who lives next door, a special teacher or coach, your mom’s best friend, and on and on it goes.

You may think that Hallmark is overreaching on this one, but I absolutely agree with the philosophy. I think I know of someone to whom I could mail each one of those cards. It is somewhat overwhelming and indeed, humbling, to think of the many women who have loved and supported me, who’ve taught me, counseled me, comforted me, redirected me, laughed with me and cried with me.

I certainly do not want to minimize the gentlemen in our lives, but today is a golden opportunity to say a prayer of thanksgiving for the kindness and love which has been extended to us over the years.

And I am ever so grateful to those who helped to raise me, who helped me raise children of my own, and who help to raise every child in our community. It does take a village!

Happy Mother’s Day! God has created beautiful bouquets everywhere we look. Just imagine each springtime blossom is a celebration of women and the love they share. The splendor of the magnolias, azaleas, violets, tulips, irises and peonies is nature’s way of saying thank you!

SMPS Inaugural Art Show
St. Michael Parish School’s Inaugural Art Show was phenomenal! The art was diverse, lighting set perfect, displays placed eloquently, and the energy astonishing! Thank you to Mr. Quenton Northcraft for his dedication, vision, imagination, talent, and treasure to make this all possible. Also, thank you to Mrs. Amy Thalman, our art teacher, for teaching, guiding and leading our students to be such great artists. Lastly, Mrs. Cathy Northcraft and Mr. Andy Thalman must also be thanked, as a show such as this doesn’t happen without sacrifices at home. It really was a very special night!

Also, thank you to Deb “Mama” Freels for filling over 1000 plastic Easter eggs, Isaac Dieffenbaugh, Kathleen Dieffenbaugh, Mike Murphy, Mary Murphy, Maria Murphy (Our Easter Bunny!), Sandy Pell, Kevin Kaufman, Rhonda Kaufman, Didi Morgan, Gretchen Wilson, and all of the teens who made this day so fun for our little ones! We look forward to having a couple of families step forward to take over the Fish Fry for next year. There is a phenomenal team of regulars that will guide you through the process but our turn at running the Fish Fry has come to an end. If you are interested please email mrsnodurft@smpswv.org or kathleen@stmikesparish.org

Again, thank you for a wonderful Fish Fry and thank you for making God so visible to us.

Thank You for supporting this year’s Fish Fry!
The 2019 Fish Fry was a huge success. It truly was a time of friendship, fellowship, and delicious fish! During the John Angotti concert, John mentioned the importance of being present in the moment and finding places and moments where God is visible. It is awesome to see that God was present at the Fish Fry. God was visible in the generations of families, old and new friends, our students, parishioners, and visitors that came together to share a meal and visit.

Thank you to all of the volunteers that supported the St. Michael Fish Fry by working in the kitchen, the dining room, and/or baking for the dessert table. A very special thank you to our “working regulars” Kathy Kutsch, John Kutsch, Isaac Dieffenbaugh, E.J. Nodurft, Dee Dean, Jimmy Dean, Staci Spry, Kristy Riedel, Erica Przybysz, Deb Freels “Mama”, Marcy Hartzell, Andrew Hartzell, Treoston Nemeth, Alex Frangos, Sandy Pell, Ryan Costanzo and Barb Gabis. Your time and dedication to the Fish Fry was truly astounding and greatly appreciated!

Also, thank you to all of the bakers. The 7th grade class earned $634 to assist with their 8th grade school year expenses. Thank you as well to Sis & Andy Richardson for their monetary support!

A new addition to the Fish Fry this year was the Money Wall. The $800 raised from the Money Wall has been earmarked for safety upgrades in our school for the 2019-2020 school year.

St. Michael Parish School wishes to thank the following for their generous contributions to our school:

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Bailes for the donation of a big screen T.V.

Dr. Joseph G. Saseen, D.D.S. monetary donation to the Suzanne Elizabeth Saseen Scholarship Fund
