FRAGRANT FORGIVENESS
Forgiveness is the fragrance a violet sheds on the heel that has crushed it. —Mark Twain

CANDLE OF PEACE

This candle burns in spirit with everyone whose trust was betrayed by the Church that we love.

We pray for the grace to forgive and to act with justice. Grant that all who have been harmed may find peace.

The Rosary is said every weekday after morning Mass at St. Michael Church. This week’s Rosary leader is Edie Fuller.

The Sanctuary Candle beside the tabernacle burns this week in memory of The Flaherty Family. May they rest in peace oh Lord, and let Eternal Light shine upon them.

I received an email from my friend and fellow parishioner, Heather Ziegler. She had a wonderful story to tell about a special occurrence with her garden this year. She mentioned that it seemed appropriate to share during the month of October as this is the month we honor Mary and the Rosary.

With Heather’s permission, I am publishing her email and photograph. Thank you, Heather, for sharing the good news from your home (and thank you for spreading the good news about our church and school from your office)!

—Wendy Hinerman

Hi Wendy, I wish to relate something to you regarding the Blessed Virgin.

Each spring I put her statue on my front porch. I put it in the same spot in front of some potted plants. This year I planted two begonia plants and put one extra red impatiens plant in the middle of the bottom plant on my plant stand behind Mary. Well the red impatiens has grown out of the pot and wrapped itself around Mary's hand! I did nothing to encourage this. Funny how even nature respects Mary! I sent the picture so you can see what I mean. I thought it was appropriate since we honor Mary and the Rosary in October. Just some food for thought for your column.

Have a great day.

Heather

A CATHOLIC LIFE

Have you experienced divorce and would like to know more about the annulment process? Are you divorced and remarried outside the Catholic Church? Would you like to know how to make your marriage valid in the Church so you can receive the Sacraments again?

Please contact Fr. Smay: 304-242-1560, x5 or msmay@stmikesparish.org about the annulment process.

Unfortunately, a lot of people have erroneous ideas about the process. It is doable and Father Smay will help you throughout the process.

Attention Parents!

Our college students are already entering the second half of their fall semester. It is time for the Parish Pastoral Council to get finals’ week care packages ready to send to the college students of the parish. If you would like a care package sent to your son or daughter, please send us your child/children's names and addresses. Please let us know if your children have any food allergies or dietary restrictions. Information can be sent to Amanda Castle @ amandacastle09@gmail.com by November 17th. We will send out the care packages the last week of classes in the fall semester. Thank you!

The Office of Formation and Mission for the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, through its’ partnership with the University of Dayton, is offering a 5-week seminar on the Old Testament. The seminar will be held on Tuesday nights from 6:00pm-7:30pm in the conference room of the parish office at Corpus Christi Parish (1508 Warwood Avenue, Wheeling) beginning Tuesday, Oct. 29th. Together we will navigate through the Old Testament as we attempt to develop a deeper personal understanding and appreciation of these sacred texts. This series is open to all parishes in the Wheeling Vicariate. The fee is $25 and covers the cost of all materials. Scholarships are available if the cost presents an obstacle.

The seminar will be facilitated by Shirley Carter, who holds a Bachelor of Liberal Arts from West Liberty and a Master of Theology from Wheeling Jesuit University. For more information or to sign up for the course, contact Jeanne McKeets in the Department of Formation & Mission at jmckeets@dwc.org or 304-233-0880, ext. 374. Space is limited, so sign up today to reserve your spot. Registration will close on October 28th.

Although the hours of daylight are rapidly dwindling, many people would say that these October days bring the year’s most splendid weather. Americans are riders and joggers, not strollers, and so the pleasures of the season are often lost on us. This is not the case with many Jewish people, who observe an ancient rule in walking to synagogue on the Sabbath. On city streets and suburban sidewalks in many cities, we may notice around sunset the nicely dressed families walking and chatting on Friday afternoon. After a short prayer at dusk, the families stroll home again for a relaxing and festive meal. They return to synagogue in the morning, and then spend an afternoon in family leisure until three stars appear in the night sky and Sabbath ends.

Catholics, on the other hand, pile into the car and drive even a short distance to Mass; some even divide the family to participate at different hours. For Jews, the leisurely walk marks a dividing line between hectic life commitments and a day of abundant joy and enrichment. Before we became an automobile culture, Catholics embraced a similar pace, and in most places walked to church. These lovely days of fall invite us to tap into an old and life-giving tradition. If you live within a mile of your church, walk next week. If you must drive, park at a good distance and walk the rest of the way. Talk about your life, greet strangers, notice the crunch of leaves under your shoes. You may be surprised at how different Sunday Mass feels when it is framed by leisure!

An Act of Faith

I believe that there is one God, and that in this one God there are three persons. That the Son of God was made man for us, that He died upon the Cross, rose again from the dead and ascended into heaven. I believe that the Son of God will come again at the Last Day, and call all men to judgment. I believe this because Christ is the Son of God and therefore can neither deceive nor be deceived; and because He has confirmed His teaching by many miracles. Moreover I believe whatever the Catholic Church by Christ's authority proposes to us to be believed; I believe it because the Catholic Church is guided and defended against error by the Holy Spirit. O God, increase my faith.

An Act of Hope

O my God, I hope that after death You will admit me to everlasting happiness, and that You will give me here such means as are essential to the attainment of that happiness. I trust that You will grant me for this end the grace of the Holy Spirit, such temporal good things as are necessary to me, pardon of sin, help in time of need, and a gracious answer to my petitions. I hope this, because You, Who are almighty and all-bountiful and ever-faithful to Your promises, have promised these things to me, and because Jesus Christ, my Lord and Savior, has merited them for my by His Sacred Passion and death upon the Cross. O God, increase my hope.

An Act of Charity

My God, I love You with my whole heart, and above all things, because You are supreme beauty and perfection, because You are my greatest benefactor and Your love for me is infinite. I will, therefore, think of You in all my actions; I will avoid even the slightest sins; I will give You thanks for all Your benefits and for all You give me to suffer, and I will love my neighbor because he is Your child and made after Your image. O God, increase my charity.

—Father Marin Smay

FUNERAL CHOIR MEMBERS NEEDED!

Our parish is pleased to have a dedicated group of men and women who attend each Funeral Mass and assist in leading the music and sung prayer during the Mass. This ministry is very important as it provides not only musical support but is also a ministry of presence and prayer offered to support the family as they grieve and to pray for the repose of the soul of the deceased. We are in need of additional members to assist in this ministry. The choir gathers about 15-20 minutes before the Funeral Mass and then sings for the Mass. If you are interested, please contact Clara White 304.242.2278 or Lucille Otte 304.242.3014.

Pray for Vocations

O Mary, who raised your Divine Son with the guidance of the Holy Spirit, intercede for all young people, especially those clouded by doubt about their vocations. May the light of grace pierce their hearts so they may answer your Son’s call, especially those whom He is inviting to the priesthood and consecrated life.

Amen.
